Dear Editor of Revista Mexicana de Biodiversidad:

Via this letter I testify that all authors of the present manuscript dealing with the description of a new species of scorpion from Mexico, do agree about its submission to you, and also that the Corresponding Author has been authorized by the co-author. We all warrant this Article has not been published before and is not concurrently being considered for publication elsewhere. This article does not violate any copyright or other personal proprietary right of any person or entity and it contains no abusive, defamatory, obscene or fraudulent statements, nor any other statements that are unlawful in any way.

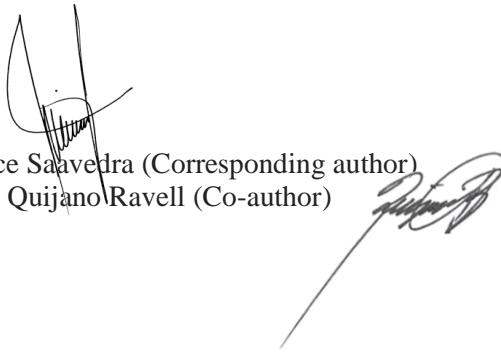

On another hand, we believe that our work is an important contribution to the scorpion's biodiversity from Mexico.

Dr. Oscar F. Francke (offb@ib.unam.mx), or Dr. Luis F. Armas (luisdearmas1945@gmail.com) could be revisers of this work.

Thanks for your attention to our paper.

Sincerely,

Javier Ponce Saavedra (Corresponding author) and Ana F. Quijano Ravell (Co-author)

The image shows two handwritten signatures in black ink. The first signature is on the left, partially overlapping the text 'Sincerely,' and the second signature is on the right, overlapping the text 'Javier Ponce Saavedra (Corresponding author) and Ana F.
